VENICE INTERNATIONAL PHOTO CONTEST

The Venice International Photo Contest

Once again we want to thank every single person that, by trusting our project and joining our competition made our dream come true for the third year. 2007 was a big technologic challenge: running the classical 'old school' competition on a new tailored software framework and betting on an electronic submission environment ended up not only in a precise and bullet proof management system but led to a tremendous increase of entries received, also thank to the sensible decrease of entrance complexity and cost to the users. Both entries and entrants increased about 150% compared to 2006: photographers from 84 countries joined VIPC!

We are happy to state that our mission of exhibiting and publishing professional and young photo artists has been successfully accomplished again, we promise to continue with what has already been gained and move forward, working as hard as ever, because an independent and innovative photographic competition is what we are and how we want to remain.

Year 2007's important milestones:

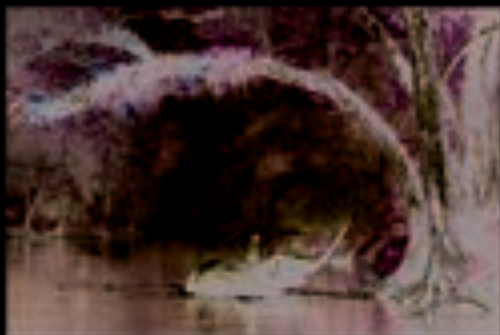

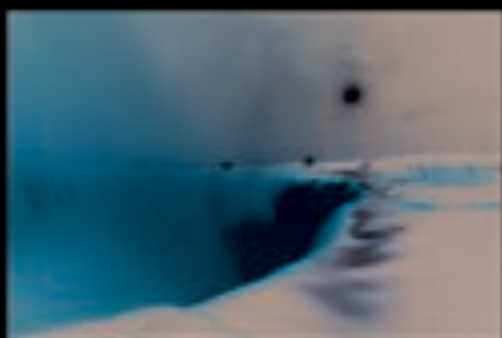

- "Best of VIPC 05/06" hosted by "Buenos Aires Club", Buenos Aires (24 Sep);
- "Poverty and Health" exhibition for the Technical Consultation of WHO, World Health Organization - Regional Office For Europe, Palazzo Franchetti, Venice (29 Nov - 1 Dec);
- "Best of VIPC 05/06 Slideshow" at the BBCC Expo in Venice (29 Nov - 1 Dec);
- Award Ceremony & VIPC Exhibition 2007, Santa Maria Della Pietà, Venice (8-22 Dec);

Federico Poggi and Emanuele Tozzato, chairmen of the VIPC, are particularly thankful to:

Wade Clutton (PSA), for the patience and trust he demonstrated as a judge, the judges Edwin Marcow (UK), Marco Pinna (IT), Seymour G. Pond (USA); dr. Erio Ziglio (WHO - Regional Office For Europe) for his interest in VIPC and the WHO staff Andrea Bertola, Sandra Micheluz, Bianca Bortot, Theadora Koller, Vivienne Mary, Taylor Gee, Holly Nielsen; dr. Luis Alberto Steinberg, president of "Buenos Aires Foto-club" and his staff for the effort to exhibit "VIPC - Best of 05/06" in Buenos Aires; the director of Institute "S. Maria Alla Pietà" Clara Urlando and her staff; the president of "Regione Veneto" Giancarlo Galan; Anna Maria Giannuzzi Miraglia; "Istituto Veneto Delle Belle Arti"; Fulvio Landillo (Venezia Fiere); Giorgio Vidal (TvExpress) and Studio PixART for the technical support; 2night spa.

Special thanks to the core staff of VIPC for the never-ending support: Alfonso Montanarini, Fernando De Leo, Davide Tozzato, Matteo Pescarin, Donata Zan, Christine Dias, Paolo Croci and all the people that offered their time for this event.

The World Health Organization: extreme poverty as the world's greatest cause of illness and suffering across the globe.

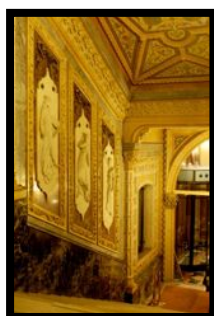

Poverty is the greatest challenge to human development manifestations and causes exclusion, low quality food supply, unsafe working condition environments, health services vulnerable to risks to health. People suffering from illness susceptible to poverty die sooner and become sick more often than those in more privileged positions. This photo collection and photos that preceded it, images portraying misery and exclusion, reflect the features and assets that enable people to survive and overcome adverse socioeconomic conditions.

These pictures intend to return the true value of what has been unknowingly overshadowed and underestimated by numbers and words: inner strength, resourcefulness and selflessness.

These photos reveal a world of energies, colours and humanity that goes beyond what words and numbers can importantly only partially express.
